

Cycling for Libraries Seminar: Discussion and Debate in Norwegian Libraries

Join us at Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences (HiOA) to welcome Cycling for Libraries participants to Norway and learn about how Norwegian libraries are responding to the Norwegian Library Law that mandates libraries serve as public arenas for discussion and debate. All librarians, LIS students and lovers of libraries are welcome to attend!

Time: August 31, 2015 from 13:00 to 16:00

Location: Oslo and Akershus University College (HiOA), Pilestredet 48, room P568

Schedule

13:00-13:15 Tor Arne Dahl, Head of LIS Department: Welcome to HiOA

13:15-13:30 Ann-Christin Gramming, Law Librarian & Cycling for Libraries Organizer

13:30-14:00 Ragnar Audunson, Professor HiOA

14:00-14:30 Marianne Julin Montgomery, Section Leader HiOA Learning Center and Libraries

15:00-15:30 Kristin Danielsen, Library Director Deichman

15:30-16:00 Aslak Sira Myhre, Library Director of National Library of Norway

Reception 16:30-18:30

The seminar will be held in English

Welcome!

Jamie Johnston

PhD Candidate, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences

Email: Jamie.Johnston@hioa.no